

Senior Scholarships SCJEA 2019

The Southern California Journalism Education Association is looking for students to honor for their accomplishments on their high school journalism staffs with the following scholarships.

Ted Tajima Scholarship Award $1,000

For graduating seniors only

Ted Tajima was the adviser at Alhambra High School for 35 years, a founder of SCJEA, and adviser to many current professional journalists. In addition, he served as national vice-president of JEA and president of SCJEA. The Moor, then a weekly newspaper was a perennial NSPA All-American. He was a mentor to many advisers, as well.

Carol Hallenbeck Scholarship Award $500

For graduating seniors only

Carol Hallenbeck for 20 years advised the Accolade at Sunny Hills High School in Fullerton. The newspaper won awards at many levels. She was a frequent speaker at state and national conventions and a co-editor of Practical ideas for Teaching Journalism, a book with lessons for Journalism and yearbook advisers. She was a leader in Orange County JEA and SCJEA.

Betty Rogers Scholarship Award 2 @ $250

For graduating seniors only

Betty Rogers was the adviser to the Lancer Scroll at Bell Gardens High School.
